

■ VIP guests got a sneak preview of the Ritz-Carlton Bahrain Hotel and Spa's Ramadan iftar tent last night. The event took place in the hotel's Al Khayma tent and showcased entertainment that will be available during Ramadan, including Arabic singers. Above, the iftar tent, and right, a singer entertains guests.

■ Three-hundred graduates received their certificates from Ahlia University during a ceremony at the Gulf Hotel. The students, who completed their bachelors and masters degrees, were presented with certificates by university president Abdulla Al Hawaj. Forty-five graduates were also honoured for achieving academic excellence by university board chairman Farouk Almoayyed and university board of trustees chairman Professor Marwan Kamal. ■ A talent show was hosted by Bahrain Polytechnic's web media students at their Isa Town campus. It was organised in co-operation with the university's student council and featured performances by hundreds of students and faculty members. Participants showcased their talents including musical and dance performances. Above, one of the participants showcasing his musical abilities.

Ramadan Kareem

During the holy month of Ramadan, our branch timings will be as follows:

Regular Branches

8:30 am to 1:30 pm

Seef Mall Branch
