

POLYTECHNIC AWARDS BILM TO 150 STUDENTS

The Bahrain Polytechnic awarded 150 Bachelor of International Logistics Management (BILM) students at their campus after successfully completing their Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport (CILT) diploma and certificate qualifications. Over 300 guests attended the event including the Polytechnic's senior management and students' family members and friends. The ceremony awarded 135 Certificates to first year students in Logistics and Transport and another 15 Diplomas to the second and third year students. The CILT representative flew in from London to attend the occasion. Prior to the award ceremony, speeches were given by Chairman of the Board for Bahrain Polytechnic, Shaikh Hisham bin Abdulaziz Al Khalifa, followed by CILT Representative Dr. David Maunder and Bahrain Polytechnic Logistics Joint Programme Manager John Webb. Left, Shaikh Hisham handing a certificate to one of the students in the presence of Mr. Webb.

The Gulf Petrochemical Industries Co. (GPIC) affirms its stronghold to humanitarian causes by providing financial support to the Alsanabel Orphans Care Society (AOCS). The agreement was signed between Honorary President of Alsanabel Orphans Care Society, Shaikh Salman bin Abdulla Al Khalifa, and GPIC President, Abdulrahman Jawahery. AOCS Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Shaikh Adnan Al Qattan expressed gratitude for the support extended by GPIC and stressed that the charity given helps in providing a platform to orphans of the society to participate and integrate themselves in a larger role playing. He said that such support from the governmental or private institutions in Bahrain plays a significant role in building up and providing assistance to the needy societies in the Kingdom. Left, Shaikh Salman, Mr. Jawahery and other officials during the signing of the agreement.

PICS BY MUHAMED THASLEEM

PIC BY RANJITH MOHAME

CrediMax has held its annual Ramadan Ghabga at the Ritz Carlton Hotel yesterday. The event was attended by CrediMax officials such as CEO Yousif Mirza, Merchants Service and Sales Senior Manager Amira Ismail, Head of Merchants Relationship Ali Al Mishal, Head of Customer Service Ali Al Saeed and the Head of Finance and General Services Yasser Shabaan. It was also attended by other companies officials from different fields, businessmen and media representatives.

Al Haddad Motors, sole distributors of Mercedes Benz cars and commercial vehicles in the Kingdom of Bahrain organised a fun-filled Ramadan Ghabgha event at the Elite Resort and Spa yesterday for all its customers. The commercial vehicle department represents Mercedes-Benz vans, trucks and buses. The event was attended by a large number of customers who were given a quick overview of the vast product range of trucks, vans and buses and gave a better understanding of products and services in different segments. Present during the event were the Al Haddad family, the entire management led by General Manager Graeme Newport, key operations team, media representatives and other invited guests. Above, Mr. Newport (second from right), Mr. Abdulla Haddad (right) and other officials during the event.

Ending 14 years of exemplary services in the field of Dawah (Invitation to Islam) in Bahrain, Shaikh P. Sharafudheen Faizy is set to depart the country. He was honoured for his services at the Farooq Masjid in the presence of Jamaith members and Dr. Shaikh Isa Al Mutawa. Apart from his Dawah works, he was also involved in translating Jummah Sermon and helping Tamil speaking Muslim brothers and sisters to unite in the name of God. He encouraged people to spread the positive message of Islam, separating it from the negative image portrayed by some Muslims. From left, Shaikh Farzan Usvi, Dr. Al Mutawa, Shaikh Faizy and S. Khalid.

