

■ More than 100 children, aged four to 14, took part in Bahrain Rugby Football Club's Easter sports camp. They took part in various sports activities and treasure hunts at the event, which was also attended by club general manager Rod Aldridge, authorised consultant James Doig, coaches and parents. Above, club officials with the children.

■ The new 2016 Toyota Innova was unveiled yesterday at the Toyota Showroom in Sitra. It was attended by officials from Ebrahim K Kanoo, the sole distributor of Toyota and Lexus in Bahrain. The new Innova, priced at BD10,300, can comfortably seat up to seven passengers and its exterior is carefully designed with SUV elements. It is available with a 2.7-litre four-cylinder petrol engine with 164HP. A 4.2-inch colour display allows the driver to access a multitude of vehicle information, important warnings and in-car entertainment. The new Innova also has a six-speaker specialised audio equaliser to achieve low-distortion playback at low range and a clear playback at middle to high range. Above, officials from Toyota and Ebrahim K Kanoo at the launch.

Looking for a fitness centre?

Go to www.abc-bahrain.com

Arabian Business Community

■ An agreement to provide students of Bahrain Polytechnic with on-the-job training was signed with Amthal Group. The deal will also look into sharing knowledge and experience, as well as collaborate on research projects, arranging visits and providing guest speakers. The students will have the opportunity to intern at any of Amthal Group's solutions providing divisions, its electronic commerce division or its networking and communication division. Present at the signing ceremony were, Amthal Group chief operating officer Hani Awachi and Bahrain Polytechnic acting chief operating officer Mohamed Ebrahim Al Aseeri. Above, Mr Awachi, fourth from left, and Mr Al Aseeri, fifth from left, with other officials.