

PUTTING YOU IN THE PICTURE

■ Students from Shaikh Abdulla Secondary School have visited the Khaleeji Commercial Bank (KHCB) as part of training programme Job Shadow by youth-centred organisation inJAz. They were welcomed at the branch in Bahrain Financial Harbour and briefed on its operations and services. Above, the students with KHCB officials.

■ Members of Bahrain-based businesswomen's networking group Biznet held an event at Al Areen Palace Hotel and Spa in Sakhir. More than 20 members and guests took part in the evening, which included a business-focused presentation and a spa treatment at the hotel's hydrothermal garden. Above, Biznet members and guests at the event.

■ A plaque has been awarded to Junaid Perfumes by the Royal Charity Organisation (RCO) to honour the company for its support. The presentation was held to mark Arab Orphan Day and saw Junaid Perfumes public relations manager Lamyia Matoq receive the plaque from RCO secretary-general Dr Mustafa Al Sayed. Above, Dr Al Sayed, fourth from left, with Ms Matoq, second from right, and other Junaid Perfumes and RCO officials at the presentation.

■ A career development workshop, at Bahrain Polytechnic, Isa Town, was attended by faculty members and representatives from the labour and education ministries along with other government bodies. It covered topics relating to the university's Career and Employment Centre. Acting chief executive Dr Mohammed Al Aseeri said helping students choose their careers played a vital role in the learning curve. Above, career adviser Abdulridha Dismal speaks at the event.

■ More than 50 employees and members of the public took part in Wahooo! Water Park's annual blood donation drive at its premises in Bahrain City Centre. The event was supported by the Health Ministry. Medics from various hospitals were present to offer help during the event. Above, the blood donation drive underway.

Manama Theatre Club
a section of the British Club
presents

The Complete Works of William Shakespeare

Written by Adam Long, Daniel Singer and Jess Winfield

Based on the works of William Shakespeare

ABRIDGED

Three crazy actors performing all 37 plays in 90 minutes

10th - 13th June 2014
THE BRITISH CLUB

10th June Curtain up 7:00pm
11th - 13th June Curtain up 8:00pm

Theatre only BD5 (BD7 non-members)

Tickets on sale at The British Club reception and The Great Deli Cafe, Najibi Centre, Saar

A donation from proceeds will be made to charity

