

■ Professional photographer Phil Weymouth was the speaker at the Living Room Dialogue at St Christopher's Cathedral. He spoke about his life and work, the cameras that he uses and highlighted his interest in the ordinary everyday life of Bahrain. He first came to Bahrain in 1968 and has witnessed huge changes over the years. Above, Mr Weymouth speaking at the event.

■ Her Royal Highness Princess Sabeeka bint Ibrahim Al Khalifa, wife of His Majesty and Supreme Council for Women President, yesterday deputised Culture Minister Shaikha Mai bint Mohammed Al Khalifa to open the Jordan Contemporary Art Show. The exhibition is being held at Al Riwaq Art Gallery, Adliya, in co-operation with Aisha Yateem Family Counselling Centre, the Jordanian Embassy and Wadi Finan Art Gallery. The show runs until Saturday and proceeds will be donated to the counselling centre.

■ Abdul Rahman Kanoo International School principal Aysha Janahi with participants and officials at the event

Major issues probed at model UN conference

STUDENTS from several private schools in Bahrain took part in the Kanoo Model United Nations conference (KMUN 2014). The fourth annual event was organised by the Abdul Rahman Kanoo

International School at its Salmabad campus. Different issues discussed during the two-day conference included countering terrorism around the world, children and armed conflict, global co-operation on managing nuclear threats, and Ebola threats among others. The event brought together students from Abdul Rahman Kanoo International School, Naseem International School, Riffa Views International School, Shaikha Hessa Girls School, British School of Bahrain, Al Wisam International School, Al Iman School, Al Bayan International School and Al Raja School.

■ Ms Janahi presents an award to a participant

■ Dates and palm trees have been celebrated at an event held in the Ritz Carlton Bahrain Hotel and Spa. It featured a showcase of antiques and old photographs of Bahrain, while guests were treated to Arabic coffee, known as Gahwa, and date cake. Above, from left, event speaker Sophie Delobette, Bu Khalaf Coffee Shop owner Abdulla Khalifa and the hotel's executive chef Guy Gateau.

■ A prize distribution ceremony was held by the Kannada Sangha Gavel Club. The annual event honoured contest winners in four categories – table topics, speech evaluation, humorous speech and international speech. Prizes were given away by honorary president Rajesh Shetty in the presence of other club officials. Appreciation plaques were also given to executive committee members along with the award for best performer gavel masters of the term 2013-2014. Above, winners at the ceremony.

■ Teams from Bahrain Airport Services, Midal Cables, Bahrain Polytechnic and Zain Bahrain went head-to-head on the first day of the fourth annual Business Quiz Show, yesterday at Riyadat Mall, A'ali. The event, organised by FinMark Communications, aims to promote teamwork among the business community and has three more challenges set to be held tomorrow, on Monday and on November 26, from 7pm to 9pm. The winners will compete again in a grand finale on December 8. Above, last night's participants with organiser Zahra Taher, front row, centre.