

PUTTING YOU IN THE PICTURE

Bank draw joy for four women

■ Ms Ahmed, left, and Ms Al Abayooki receive their prize from Mr Sater

FOUR Bahraini women have won a share of $30,000 in the latest BMI Bank Ayadi savings scheme draw.

Bushra Ahmed and Samar Al Abayooki each received $10,000 and Rawan Ismail Al Saad and Shaima Shawqi Al Meer both got $5,000.

Fifty other winners were each awarded $1,000.

The winners were presented with prizes by BMI Bank assistant general manager and retail banking Mazen Sater.

"It was my first ever win and I celebrated with my family who were very emotional and thrilled with the news," said mother-of-two Ms Ahmed, a sales engineer.

"I had been planning to buy a new car that I really liked and with the additional prize money, this will be a perfect gift."

Customers with an Ayadi savings account are automatically entered into a monthly draw.

■ Eight students of Bahrain Polytechnic showcased their projects at an exhibition, Eight Degrees of Difference, at the institute's Isa Town campus as part of their Bachelor of Visual Design programme. Above, one of the students with her visual design project.

RAMADAN IN FOCUS

■ A group of Bahrainis playing cards at Bu Khalaf Cafe in Muharraq, which is a popular pastime during the evenings in Ramadan. Friends usually gather at traditional coffee shops around Bahrain after Iftar to drink tea, smoke sheesha and play games, including dominoes, checkers and marbles.

■ The National Hotels Company donated BD5,000 to the Bahrain Cancer Society. Company chief executive officer Abdulrahman Morshed presented the cheque to society president Abdulrahman Fakhro at the Diplomat Radisson Blu Hotel, Residence and Spa which is owned by the company. Above, Mr Morshed, second from left, accepting the cheque from Mr Fakhro, in the presence of society and company representatives.

Society launches charity projects

RAMADAN charity events are being conducted by the Bahrain Voluntary Work Society.

These include a volunteers' forum, a Ramadan iftar banquet for orphans, mid-Ramadan Gargaoun events and an Eid lunch for the elderly.

Clothes will be distributed for Eid and school bags will be handed out to children from low-income families as part of a back-to-school initiative.

Chairman Abdul Aziz Al Sindi announced details of the programmes during an event attended by volunteers at the Bahrain Society of Engineers, Juffair.

He hoped co-operation agreements would be signed with Arab and international organisations to support the society's work.

The society is a non-profit organisation formed in April to develop voluntary work in Bahrain.

Celebrate this Ramadan with Enma mall

Enma Mall is a sophisticated new shopping mall, offering a diverse range of casual & fine dining restaurants, as well international clothing, electronics, furniture, and entertainment brands. Visit us today in Riffa & enjoy a wonderful shopping experience with your family.

Call 77 555 000

KFH-Bahrain • Edible Arrangements • Ala Mood Watches • A La Mood Accessories • Larissa • Dar Al Teeb • UAE Exchange Batelco • Wool House • Asgharali • Syed Junaid • Grimas Makeup • Kryolan • Mothercare • Claires • Fat Burger Coffee bean and Tea Leaf • Latif Shoes • Giordano • Body Shop • Nasser Pharmacy • Optica • VIVA • Lifestyle Jewelry Zohoor Al Reef • Boots • Payless • Segafredo Zanetti • Addidas • Noor Optic • Milvita • Starbucks • Flomar • Ajmal Perfumes Red Tag • Sharaf DG • Geant • Jasmis • Shawaytnah • Saffron Curry • Al Baraka Sports • Moods Furniture