

Royal Bahrain Hospital (RBH) President Ahmed Jawahery, directors Soman Baby and M.T. Mathew and Chief Operating Officer Dr. Ravi Preet Singh at an Iftar party organised by RBH for its staff at its premises in Salmaniya yesterday.

The Bahrain Petroleum Company (Bapco) held a Ramadan Ghabga at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel for members of Bahrain's Media on Thursday. The event was held in recognition of their continuous support towards the company's activities and programmes. The event was attended by key members of the local Media as well as Bapco's Chairman and Acting Chief Executive Adel Almoayyed and members of Bapco's Executive Committee. Dignitaries from various Bahraini newspapers and local television channels were present at the event, which served as an informal socialising and networking platform for attendees.

Bapco hosts Ghabga for members of the Media

BMI bank held its annual Ramadan Ghabga for staff at the Sheraton Hotel Bahrain. The event was attended by the Chief Executive Officer Jamal Al-Hazeem as well as senior executives, apart from employees and their families.

Forty members of the Bahrain British Business Forum (BBBF) enjoyed a special Ramadan Quiz Night, which was hosted at the British Club. BBBF member Nigel and Annelise Widdowson of Expat Angels, who were the quiz masters, distributed prizes to the winning teams.

About 400 people were present at the Ghabga and Gergaoun night, which was hosted by the Bahrain Polytechnic at the Gulf Hotel. The event was attended by Polytechnic's officials including Board of Trustees Chairman Shaikh Hisham Al Khalifa, Acting CEO Dr. Mohamed Al Aseeri, Vice CEO Dr. Hasan Al Mulla, HR Director Shaikh Ali Al Khalifa and Member of Board Mariam Janahi.

Aluminum Bahrain Company (Alba) celebrated its Ramadan Gergaoun night yesterday at Alba Club in Riffa. The event, which was hosted for the company's staff and their families, was attended by Alba's Operation Chief Executive Isa Al Ansari, Public Relations and Human Resources Senior Manager Abdulrahman Janahi, Company's Union Chairman Ali Albinali, Financial Chief Officer Ali Al Baqali and Club's Director and the event's organiser Yousif Sultan. About 400 people attended the event, which had a special segment exclusively catering to the children.

The Bahrain Internet Society (BIS) will be hosting a Ghabga for BIS members, partners and supporters tonight at the Dana Hall, Gulf Hotel Convention Centre at

BIS set for big night

9:30pm. The programme has been organised by the BIS board, administrators and members of the society.