

PUTTING YOU IN THE PICTURE

■ A ghabga was hosted by Ebrahim Khalil Kanoo for insurance companies across the country. The event, held at the Diplomat Radisson Blu Hotel, Residence and Spa, was attended by company management, leading businessmen and guests. "Ramadan is the time to show gratitude, and we have gathered here to express our sincere appreciation to our partners, the insurance companies, for their continuous support to help us offer the best customer service," said Ebrahim Khalil Kanoo senior manager Ebrahim Akbar during the ceremony. Above, company officials and guests at the event.

Seef Properties supports centre

SEEF Properties has donated BD5,000 to the Muharraq Social Welfare Centre for the Elderly.

Company chairman Essa Najibi presented a cheque to centre chairman Waleed Al Zamil in the presence of several key officials.

The centre provides a range of services and activities that benefit elderly people, including health care initiatives, entertainment and social programmes.

■ Mr Al Zamil, third from left, receiving the cheque from Mr Najibi

Out Now!

www.GulfConstructionMagazine.Com

Construction Specialists Magazine

For more information
Please visit our website www.GulfConstructionMagazine.Com
Gulf International Publications, PO Box 10865, Manama, Bahrain
Tel: 17299149 Fax: 17295277 Email: info@gip.com.bh

■ An Iftar was hosted by Turk Heavy Transport (THT) at its office in Sitra. More than 250 clients attended the gathering, which featured Arabic-themed food provided by Al Wasmiya Restaurant in Manama. Above, THT chief executive Khalid Turk, seated, fourth from left, with senior officials and staff at the event.

60 students show off their skills

SIXTY senior students from Bahrain Polytechnic hosted a Graduate Skills Show at its Isa Town campus.

The project provided students with the chance to market themselves to different employers.

Some of the companies that took part in the event were GPIC, Standard Chartered Bank and ACK Solutions among others.

■ Students were given two minutes each to market himself to potential employers