

FA told Taylor not to pick 'too many' black players for England

London
The Football Association (FA) tried to impose an unofficial quota system on the number of black players an England manager should be allowed to use, says a new book about racism within the sport. Pitch Black by Emy Onuora includes a passage in which an anti-racism in football campaigner claims Graham Taylor admitted to him he had been summoned by two members of the FA's hierarchy and told "in no uncertain terms" he should not go beyond a certain limit.

Unsettled weather today
Manama

The Meteorological Directorate forecast an unsettled weather for today with possible thundery rain at times. There will be gusts that may reach 35 knots at times.

RCO RELIEF WORK APACE

Nepalese hail benevolence of HM the King and Shaikh Nasser

(From left) Shaikh Isa and Dr. Al Sayed with Nepalese children at a refugee Camp in Katmandu.

DT News Network
news@dt.bh
Manama

The Bahraini volunteers from the Royal Charity Organization (RCO) in Nepal have begun their relief work of setting up tents in central Kathmandu where housing is in shambles and even makeshift tents are falling apart after the first week of rough living.

"The situation is still grim and for the survivors, it will be a long haul to normalcy," said RCO Secretary-General Dr. Mustafa Al-Sayed.

He said, "We are amazed at the strength, calm and resilience of the people of Nepal. The people are full of praise for the benevolence of HM King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and the effective aid leadership of His Majesty the King's Representative for Charity and Youth Affairs and RCO Board of Trustees Chairman HH

A Bahrain Defence Force (BDF) team from the Royal Guards, headed by HH Shaikh Isa bin Abdulla Al Khalifa, was joined by the Nepali military volunteers. They installed tents as shelter for the homeless and distributed food packets and survival kits to the survivors

Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa. We are being supported by Nepali student volunteers and military teams."

A Bahrain Defence Force (BDF) team from the Royal Guards, headed by Shaikh Isa bin Abdulla Al Khalifa, was joined by the Nepali military volunteers. They installed tents as shelter for the homeless and distributed food packets and survival kits to the survivors.

Dr. Al Sayed said that the RCO's work had been especially supported by Bahrain's Ambassador to India and Nepal, Tariq bin Dayna, who has worked tirelessly to manage the team's logistics.

"All our team members are safe and working very hard. Our morale is good despite difficult conditions," he added.

Winners of Imagine Cup Bahrain announced

DT News Network
Manama

The Bahrain Economic Development Board (EDB), Tamkeen, Microsoft and eGovernment Authority yesterday announced the names of the winners of the 2015 Imagine Cup in the Kingdom of Bahrain. "Team Vanguard" won the Games category, "Team Storm" won the Innovation category and "Team MyVoice" emerged winners in the World Citizenship category.

All three teams will participate in the Pan-Arab Finals to be held here between May 31 and June 3 under the patronage of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Crown Prince, Deputy Supreme Commander, First Deputy Prime Minister and Chairman of the Bahrain Economic Development Board (EDB).

Congratulating the winners, Khalid Al Rumaihi, Chief Executive of Bahrain EDB, said:

"Every team participated has demonstrated a high level of innovation, determination and professionalism. It's good to see our local talent taking advantage of events such as the Microsoft Imagine Cup, which offer the perfect platform to showcase their creativity and capabilities to an international audience."

Over hundred students participated in this year's round of Imagine Cup in Bahrain and more than 46 team projects were received, representing most of the higher education institutions in the country. Nine teams qualified to the local finals in Bahrain.

The three teams- "Team Vanguard" with project "Conscious Heart" (Bahrain Polytechnic), "Team Storm" with project "SCatcher" (University of Bahrain) and "Team EasyCom" with project "My Voice" (AMA Bahrain International)- cruised into the qualifying stages of this competition and secured their place in the Pan-Arab finals.

The winners and the sponsors pose for a photograph.

ADMISSION OPEN

10th Std (Secondary School) & 12th Std (Senior Secondary)

Programme for One year each from NIOS, Govt. of India.

10th std

Compulsory Subjects:

1. English
2. Math
3. Data Entry operations

+

Optional subjects: (any 2 subjects only)

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 4. Science & TechnologyorHome ScienceorEconomics | 5. Home ScienceorPsychologyorBusiness Studies |
|--|---|

(5 Subjects in total)

Eligibility: 15 years completed
VII passed or self certificate

12th std

Compulsory Subjects:

1. English
2. Computer Science

+

Optional subjects: (any 3 subjects only)

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 3. PhysicsOrEconomicsOrHome Science | 4. ChemistryorAccountingorPsychology |
|---|--|

5. Maths / Biology or
Business Studies
or
Mass Communication

(5 Subjects in total)

Eligibility: X (Secondary) Passed

For Registration:

GLOBAL INSTITUTE FOR MANAGEMENT SCIENCE

Mahooz. The Kingdom of Bahrain.

Contact: Kensho Knowledge Solutions W.L.L.

Office: 119, Bldg: 106, Road: 20, Block: 331, Al Ahli Club Complex, Zinj.

Ph: +973 17822157 / 36533742, Email: info@kenshoglobal.com

