Education Minister Dr. Majid Al Nuaimi yesterday officially inaugurated the new campus of Asian School at Tubli. Later, the minister toured the state-of-the-art campus, in the presence of Indian Embassy Counsellor Ram Singh and other dignitaries.

Speaking to DT News, Joseph Thomas, Chairman of the school, said it was a proud moment as the institution had achieved a major milestone in attaining best infrastructural facilities for the students. The school, founded on May 11, 1983, by Joseph Thomas and Bahraini national Ghuloom Ahmed Abbas, has grown beyond expectations, he added.

The school, affiliated to the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE), New Delhi, India, is set in a sprawling campus measuring over eight acres, housing 110 fully fledged classrooms, state-of-the-art science laboratories, math lab, better computer laboratories, and a larger well-stocked library. The school also has a spacious auditorium that accommodates around 2500 people. Plans for additional facilities including smart boards are under way.

The multi-purpose hall boasts of an indoor basketball court, volleyball/throwball court, four badminton courts, table tennis facility and gymnastics area. The school compound has a football ground, three basketball courts, three volleyball/throwball courts, one tennis court and a long jump/high jump pit. There is an outdoor stage to accommodate over 5000 people.

The kindergarten section has a special enclosed shaded play area, fitted with playground equipment. "The management hopes that the school will reach new heights of excellence with the additional facilities provided at the new campus," said the Chairman of the school.

Security staff felicitated for averting fire mishap at institution

Bahrain Polytechnic's executive management awarded its security staff members on Tuesday for preventing a fire outbreak.

The timely action by five security staff members prevented the outbreak at the Polytechnic campus, and they were rewarded for their proactive response.

Dr. Mohamed Al Aseeri, Acting CEO, stated, "Bahrain Polytechnic's executive management, including our Chairman of the Board Sheikh Hisham bin Abdulaziz Al Khalifa, would like to thank the security team for their efforts."

Dr. Al Aseeri awarded the security team alongside Deputy CEO of Resources and Information Affairs, Sh. Ali bin Abdulrahman Al Khalifa, in the presence of the Manager of Security, Yousif Mohammed.
