It was held for 4 days in Washington and 2 days in New York. The delegation consisting of religious leaders and representatives on many establishments and societies aimed to share with the world the outstanding right to religious freedom in the Kingdom of Bahrain.

CELEBRATING KALAM AT NIS

Under the guidance of Director and Principal, Dr. V. Gopalan, The New Indian School celebrated the month of September as Kalam's month rejoicing and reliving the legacy left behind by Dr. A.P.J. Abdul

Kalam, Former President of India. Each day, a significant page of Dr. Kalam's life was unveiled and some interesting facts about him were shared in the assemblies. Some of his famous quotes were chosen and elucidated by the teachers. A quiz programme on Dr. Abdul Kalam was conducted for classes IX-XII. As reported by the Principal, the celebration was intended to percolate down Dr. Kalam's principles and values among the student fraternity.

Student Council awards volunteers

The Bahrain Polytechnic Student Council (BPSC) awarded its volunteering students for their efforts in getting involved in organizing events during the past year.

The student council's recent events included the student Ghabga held during the Holy month of Ramadhan.

The awarding ceremony, which took place at the BPSC headquarters, was opened by a word from the Arts and Cultural Committee Chair, Hasan Al Tooq, where he praised the volunteers, and concluded by reciting a poem he wrote himself in regards to the volunteer's hard work.

President of BPSC, Mohamed Al Abbasi, also delivered a speech where he expressed his gratitude to the team of volunteers, and was pleased to see the amount of dedication that abounds in Polytechnic students. He added that it's important to adhere to ethics, values, and principles in order to achieve the goals of the Kingdom of Bahrain. BPSC 2015 seeks to continue this adherence for future student council members.

Sarah Husain, Head of the Volunteers, also thanked the volunteers for their efforts in taking part in organizing events and activities, and hopes to continue achieving more accomplishments in the future.

Fatima Al Hammadi, Vice President of BPSC, alongside Mohamed Al Abbasi, honoured the volunteers.

International Day for Non Violence

New Millennium School - DPS celebrated the "International Day for Non Violence" on the occasion of 'Gandhi Jayanti' with a special assembly arranged in the school campus on 4th October 2015.

"Gandhi Jayanti" is celebrated on 2nd October every year in India as the date marks the birth anniversary of Father of Indian Nation - Mahatma Gandhi. In the year 2007, the United Nations declared 2nd October as the "International Day of Non-Violence" as a mark of respect for the great leader who was a synonym of Peace and Non - violence.

Skits, speeches & poems based on the Gandhian values and thoughts were the highlight of the programs. The whole idea of the celebration was to inculcate the greatness of Gandhian Messages in the young children. Mr. Arun Kumar

Sharma, Principal addressed the gathering and emphasized on the importance of peace, non-violence and harmony in the society.

Dr. Ravi Pillai, Chairman & Mrs. Geetha Pillai, Managing Director extended their good wishes on the occasion of 'Gandhi Jayanti' and appreciated the efforts of the teachers and parents for helping the children learn the values of life.
