WM7008	Web Media Project

Course Aim This course enables students to apply the knowledge and skills acquired in the Bachelor of Web Media to date to complete a successful community project. Students will gain experience of acting as a Web Media consultant, project manager and designer/technician and will reflect on their professional and personal skills.

Short Title		Version	1
Faculty	EDICT	Effective From	September 1, 2016
		Indicative NQF Level	7
Credits	30	Student Contact hrs	60
Pre-requisites	WM7001	Self-directed hrs	240
Co-requisites		Other directed hrs
Anti-requisites	WM7004	Total learning hrs	300

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

		NQF Sub-strand
1	Apply advanced level web media techniques to solve real world problems.	Practical Application of knowledge
2	Reflect on the development and application of professional skills	Generic, Problem Solving and Analytical Skills