WM8005   Advanced Design for the Web

Course Aim	To develop advanced knowledge of design history, theory and philosophy applied in a web context

Short Title	ADW	Version	3
Faculty	EDICT	Effective From	September 1, 2018
		NQF Level	8
Credits	15	Student Contact hrs	60
Pre-requisites	WM6003 (WMB5003)	Self-directed hrs	90
Co-requisites		Other directed hrs
Anti-requisites		Total learning hrs	150

Learning Outcomes		On successful completion of this course, students will be able to:	NQF Sub-strand
	1	Apply high-level integrated research abilities in gathering and synthesising a wide range of varied information sources into a coherent form	Practical Application of knowledge
	2	Design and produce web pages, animations and videos informed by a strong awareness of established historical design styles	Practical Application of knowledge
	3	Apply critical analysis and draw upon advanced design knowledge to make recommendations for the improvement of existing websites	Practical Application of knowledge
	4	Critically assess own performance in taking responsibility for significant contributions to a project in a collaborative environment working towards a collective goal	Autonomy, Responsibility, Context